Nailed Wins Best Film

(Los Angeles) Nailed, written and directed by Joel Silverman, won the jury prize for best film at the 2002 Long Island International Film Festival. The award will be presented to Silverman at the August 22nd awards dinner in Plainview, Long Island. Nailed, which explores the chaos of an unplanned pregnancy, stars Harvey Keitel, Brad Rowe, Rachel Blanchard, Mary Kay Place and Dash Mihok. The film was executive produced by Norman and Lisette Ackenberg and Sarah Pillsbury and Midge Sanford. Curb Entertainment distributes the film internationally and jointly distributes the film with Turtles Crossing in the US.

An accomplished screenwriter, Silverman just finished writing Hell on Wheels for Disney. Over the last five years, he has sold or written on assignment a variety of projects for Disney, Fox, and MGM. A former Associated Press Award winning journalist, Silverman worked for The Washington Post and Newsday before beginning his screen-writing career.

Curb Entertainment is an independent international feature film production and distribution company. Founded in 1984, the company has distributed such titles as Kill Me Later starring Selma Blair and Max Beesley, the latest Larry Fessenden film Wendigo with Patricia Clarkson and Jake Weber and Coastlines directed by Victor Nunez.
